SONOMA LIBRARY GETS BETTER APPROPRIATION

Increase of $200 Per Year Allowed By City Trustees at Meeting Wednesday Night.

In addition to the transaction of regular business and the paying of bills including the final payments for the new sewer construction gang the Board of City Trustees appointed a committee to have a map of the town put on record at Santa Rosa, discussed the proposed street improvements and made the much needed additional appropriation of $200 for Library maintenance.

J. F. Prestwood, president of the Library Board made an eloquent plea for the proper maintenance of the Library pointing out in detail the present cost of upkeep and the insufficiency of the $600 a year as provided.

Mrs. C. G. Murphy also spoke for the appropriation citing the increased cost of books, magazines and newspapers and the need of new reading matter for the shelves. The minimum womans wage for part time workers was also called to the attention of the Board..

Upon motion of Trustee H. F. Bates seconded by Trustee Bullotti, the additional appropriation of $200 was made. Mayor Dal Poggetto voting with the majority to keep Sonoma's Library abreast with modern educational advancement and make it a credit to our city.

FIRE ENGINE CONCERN WRITES LETTERS AND STARTLING CONTENTS "STARTS SOMETHING" IN TOWN

BUSINESS MEN CONFRONTED WITH PROBLEM THAT SAVORS OF SCANDAL IN CONTEMPLATED PURCHASE OF FIRE APPARATUS. WAS A FIRE ENGINE ORDERED BY COMMITTEEMAN WITHOUT AUTHORITY OR HAS SOMEBODY LIED? IS QUESTION AGITATING TOWN

Sonoma's purchase of a fire engine is destined to be not without sensational features for with the Fire Chief of a neighboring City putting what seems to be damaging evidence of a deal whereby someone was to profit and giving in black and white the startling news that Sonoma's fire engine had been ordered by someone totally unauthorized in the matter, the Business Men's Association this week was confronted with the job of sifting circumstances which bore all the earmarks of a real scandal.

The big sensation was sprung at a meeting of the committee of six Tuesday night at the city hall where plans specifications, blue prints and data were being gone over by Messrs R. Emparan, R. Hotz, Otto Wagner, Phil Leiser, G. Bartoli and R. Busby, with the object of making a selection and recommendation of an engine to be purchased by popular subscriptions. There was a marked division of opinion relative to the merits of the three fire engine makes submitted, the experts seemingly in favor of the Watrous pump and chemical, others favoring the Gorham Fire apparatus Deluge engine, and the majority inclined to accept no engine from plans but prefering a demonstration and actual test of the merits of the fire fighting machines. In the midst of the proceedings, a bomb schell was exploded when R. R. Emparan of the original committee intimated that the selection of an engine was being blocked by one of the members out of ulterior motives, and dramatically declaring that he had good reasons for so believing produced two letters from the Gorham Fire Engine apparatus people signed by their manager in which they mentioned the name of O. R. Wagner and stating that he had wired them the order for the Deluge Engine for Sonoma on September 23rd. The letters also intimated that a $300 commission was to be paid the party representing them in the deal.

The letters came into Emparan's possession through Fire Chief Otterson of Napa who has been taking a friendly interest in Sonoma's contemplated purchase and had offered to purchase the Deluge type engine if that was to the Business Men's liking and donate the commission he assured them would be forthcoming if the order was sent in by him. Chief Otterson made a trip over here the latter part of last month and publicly stated that he would do all he could to help out Sonoma. He was told to find out what figure he could get on an engine and the exact sort of equipment from the Los Angeles manufacturers. Otterson corresponded with the fire engine concern in regard to the Sonoma proposition and received the following reply:

Gorham Fire Apparatus Company,
Los Angeles Cal.,
Sept. 23, 1920.

Fire Chief Chas. Otterson,
Napa, California.

Replying to your night letter of even date we are mailing under separate covers, photograph and specifications covering Ford triple combination pumper and chemical engine.

My brother, Will was up at Sonoma when bids were opened and according to his information the job was let to a Mr. Lashbroke representing the Watrous Ford pump.

As you no doubt know the price of Ford chasis was reduced $140 yesterday, so we are now in a position to make a better offer at this time. You can quote Sonoma on single 35 gal. tank, 250 gal. pump, 1000 ft. of hose, a price of $3700, f. o. b. Sonoma. Your commission on above price would be $300.

We understand that Mr. Emparan brought in a minority report and Mr. O. R. Wagner was in favor of the Gorham Ford outfit so we would suggest your calling on Mr. Wagner. We have a Model "M S" triple Ford which is sold to the City of Chula Vista and which can be driven to Sonoma and give them a demonstration, in fact, we would be willing to make immediate delivery if they should insist. This would make a good talking point for you and help get the business.

We will be glad to have you act as our agent, and wish you the best of success.

Very truly yours,
Gorham Fire Apparatus Co.,
Fred Hersch, Manager

This letter was followed up by the following one.

Gorham Fire Apparatus Company,
Los Angeles, Cal.,
Sept. 23, 1920.

Fire Chief Chas. F. Otterson,
Napa Fire Dept.,
Napa, California.

Dear Chief:

Referring to our letter of even date, we just received a wire wihtin the last 15 minutes from Mr. O. R. Wagner, the man mentioned in our previous communication, wiring in the order, so, under the circumstances, we will have to pay commission to the party who originally represented us, on this deal.

The writer expects to be in your city within the next three or four days time, and will then explain everything fully.

Very truly yours,
Gorham Fire Apparatus Co.,
F. S. Hersch, Manager.

Both communications are signed by F. Hersch brother of the man who had been here in the interest of the Deluge engine, and who had interviewed the original committee of which Otto Wagner, R. R. Emparan, and Ralph Hotz were members.

With the bringing to light of the startling correspondence and its perusal by the committee in the city hall Otto Wagner made vigorous denial of the intimation that he was representing the Deluge Engine people in any way, that he had ever been tendered a commission or wired in an order for their engine. The committee man declared that he courted the fullest investigation as to his dealings with the Gorham Fire Apparatus Company or its Manager. He branded their story of him having ordered the engine as utterly false, and intimated that the concern which brought him into the limelight would pay dearly for their intimations.

The committee before whom Wagner made this statement and defense immediately eliminated the Gorham Fire Apparatus Company specifications and bids and ordered them mailed back to the concern. They turned over the correspondence implicating Wagner, to the Board of Directors of the Business Men and asked that the whole matter be investigated.

The Business Men's Association is determined that every phase of the fire engine purchase shall be open and above board and that every dollar subscribed by the people shall go into fire apparatus. The Directors will continue to sift the statements made by the Gorham Fire Apparatus Company's manager involving the Sonoma committeeman who maintains that the concern has shamefully wronged him by bringing his name into the correspondence turned over by Chief Otterson. It is understood that Hersch, the author of the letters is on his way here to attempt to clear up the murky atmosphere which surrounds the fire engine deal.

The committeemen chosen to reconsider the various makes of fire engine is reported to have agreed on the Watrous Engine, the one originally chosen. The mechanics on the committee believe it to have more merit than any make submitted

IMPORTANT BUSINESS DEAL CONSUMMATED

Mission Lumber Company Name of Firm Reorganized By A. W. Adler.

An important business deal was consummated here this week whereby A. W. Adler has reorganized his lumber business and sold a half interest in it to Kenneth Weaver, the well known contractor and builder. The new concern will be known as the Mission Lumber Company, and Weaver will be manager.

The lumber yard will be moved down to the site along the spur track east of its present location and be separated entirely from the furniture manufacturing plant.

Mr. Adler has made the new disposition of his business in order to devote his entire time to the furniture business. During the past three years he has been devoting much time to the development of that department and it has proven a highly successful venture.

Adler intimates that Sonoma's present furniture manufacturing business is just a fore runner of big developments along that line and hints that he has interested a concern of nation wide reputation who would employ 80 or 90 men in the possibilities of this locality as a furniture manufacturing center. He has facts and figures on source of lumber supply, various woods and saving in overhead which have made a pronounced impression on big business men.

Mr. Weaver, new partner in the lumber yard, will take active charge about the 15 th of this month.

DR. PARRAMORE DIES IN MOVING PICTURE THEATRE

Prominent Man, Long Identified With Boyes Springs, Expires Suddenly At Oakland.

Dr. E. L. Parramore, well known resident of Sonoma Valley, where for many years he was identified with Boyes Springs, died suddenly of heart failure while attending a moving picture theatre in Oakland Wednesday. Dr. and Mrs. Parramore had gone from Boyes Springs to Oakland to care for the home of relatives who were away on a trip.

While Dr. Parramore had long suffered from heart failure and a few years ago gave up active management of Boyes Springs on account of his health, his death was nevertheless a great shock to his friends in this valley. He was a man prominent in California and with a wide circle of acquaintances and friends throughout the state. He will be mourned and in his passing Sonoma Valley loses a splendid friend and ardent booster.

Dr. Parramore came here from Mill Valley more than ten years ago, having retired from the active practice of medicine. He became keenly interested in the future of Sonoma Valley, particularly Boyes Springs in which he acquired a substantial interest. He never ceased to do splendid promotion work in behalf of this section. He was among the first to promote the Black Point Cut-off project and worked unceasingly until he saw realized the direct route from the bay to this section and the important connection between this county and the Sacramento Valley.

Born of a fine old Virginia family, Dr. Parramore was the son of a well known physician, and following the footsteps of his father, the son who had come West with the family, attended the University of California preparing for the medical course which he later took at Jefferson college in the East and the post graduate work done at Louisville, Kentucky. Besides completing his medical course, Parramore also graduated in pharmacy and was a licensed druggist. He practiced his profession at Gilroy, Mill Valley and other places prior to retiring and entering the health resort business with Rudolph Lichtenderg at Boyes Springs.

Deceased was a man of decided literary as well as scientific ability. He was also keenly interested in astronomy and was a lover of that science. He was a member of the Astronomical Society of America and had written treatises on nebular subjects. He was a good English scholar and his diction was beautiful, no matter what his theme.

At the University of California he graduated with a noted class, among the members of which were Senator Hiram Johnson, Dr. Wallace I. Terry and other distinguished men of letters and science.

At one time Dr. Parramore was medical superintendent of the San Francisco Alms House. He was a charitable and kindly man, interested in many phases of social betterment.

Deceased was 54 years of age and leaves a widow, Agnes Parramore who has been a devoted helpmate throughout his illness. Mrs. Parramore has the sympathy of many friends in her great bereavement.

The funeral took place yesterday from undertaking parlors in Oakland and was attended by a number of Sonoma friends of deceased.

VINEBURG NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Potter Hill of Eldridge transacted business in this vicinity on Tuesday.

Happy Harry Andrieux, a well known native son of Sonoma Valley was the guest of his sisters, Mrs. Fred Batto and Miss Adele Andrieux on Tuesday. Harry is a member of the crew of John D. Spreckle's yatch. He has just returned from a trip to Honolulu and Hilo via San Diego. "Happy as ever."

The month of September was sure a busy one at Batto's spur as the pioneer hay, grain and feed firm has been filling up their spacious warehouses at this point with a complete stock of wheat, barley and oats, and other seed for sewing purposes. Most of it was bought in Sonoma and Napa Valleys and vicinity. A large quantity of poultry and dairy foods in car load lots up to the present date between 12,000 and 15000 sacks have been received also and more in transit. On Tuesday last a carload of "Guilt Edge' White Egyptian corn arrived from Turlock containing 51 tons—810 sacks—the heaviest car ever spotted on the "Spur" Lots of good "seed" and lots of good "feed" at Batto's spur.

A REVIEW OF THE AMENDMENTS

AS USUAL of recent years, we are obliged to exercise hit and miss judgment on a lot of amendments at the coming election—hit and miss because if we exercise any discrimination in our voting, we are most likely to miss the ulterior motives which prompted the framing of the amendment, for all amendments are not what they seem, and few what they should be. In short, there is usually a nigger in the wood pile.

For instance—Amendment No. 10 sounds good—The preparing of a new State Constitution. Many of us feel that it would be good sense to wipe out the present cumbersome one and start all over again, but in this extravagant and freakish political age, where every fad and fallacy can easily be written into the law, it is a poor era for the re-drafting of a constitution. Better wait until we settle down to a conservative frame of mind before we frame so vital a frame work as a constitution.

The taxation amendments are here collectively—State aid to children, No. 19, is not an orphans measure but would provide state aid for children of physical disabled or tubercular fathers who cannot work. Without wishing to be uncharitable, we believe there are too many loopholes for professional charity seekers. Present philanthrophy such as community service, Red Cross and etc. should be able to care for these problems and with better individual investigation and recommendation as to deserving cases.

Exempting Orphan Asylums from taxation, vote No. Taxpayers are already carrying many such burdens.

Poll tax on aliens for the school fund. Vote No. If we are to have a poll tax let it help out on the road program and other measures not exclusively educational.

Single tax—too drastic a measure for these unstable and high priced times. Vote No.

School system(initiative) intended to increase revenue to maintain schools and pay higher salaries to teachers. Advocates declare it will spread the responsibility of maintenance and make school up-keep less burdensome for communities. The modern educational system exacts much from taxpayers and expects a great deal of voters.

University tax initiative—the University of California has grown by leaps and bounds and now has one of the largest attendances of any college in the United States. Expansion to keep pace with growth has been made possible by this carefully worked out State University Fund which the people can vote to create.

Highway Bonds—increasing the rate of interest from 4 1-2 to 6 per cent on State highway bonds to make them salable and release money for continuation of highway work. While an expensive procedure, if highway work ceases we will lose business and have our future retarded. Better pay the piper and keep progress and prosperity on the up-grade. Vote yes.

Restricting initiative, increasing from 8 per cent to 25 the number of signatures required to submit taxation measures. Yes. It is too easy now to get signatures and start almost anything. If it is necessary to get a good measure before the people, the matter of signatures will not be difficult.

Community Property Act—gives a wife power to disposal of 1-2 the community property by will and thus gives her a chance to provide for her children out of hard earned savings which now go entirely to the husband who may remarry and fail to provide for the off-spring of his first marriage, the children of the saving conscientious partner of his youth. As the law now stands a wife without children gets only half the community property in the event of his death without a will, while in the event of the wife's death the husband gets all the community property. Under the new law the wife would get half, and the other half could be disposed of by will to her or the children if there are any, or to any one else with the wife's consent. The community property laws at present are most unjust. All women and womens organizations are in favor of this referendum. Vote yes.

Absent voters—giving traveling salesmen a chance to vote while "on their way". vote No.

Anti Vaccination.—As there is already an opportunity under the present law for those with conscientious scruples to forego vaccination why throw the question wide open and let down the bars entirely?

Anti vivisection—this is a humane measure and many states contend that science does not benefit through the cruel practice of animal torture and experimentation. Physicians however are opposed to this measure believing that we operate on animals to safeguard the human family from disease.

Chiropratics and their special exaanining Board should be tabooed. Too many quacks "get by".

Irrigation—foreign to our local needs so will not discuss it.

Prohibition Enforcement—provides for use of the peace officers of the state in Enforcement of prohibition—would give peanut politicians a good chance to graft or turn them into spies, informers or money grabbers. According to late press reports from New York prohibition is " a hopeless and thankless task". Why then the Harris Act in California where foreign customs are religiously guarded and people are law abiding so long as justice and right abides in laws, and fundamental principals written in the constitution of the country they are taught to revere are recognized and respected. Vote No on this measure.

A SUGGESTION FOR THE COMMON WEAL

S. B. Buckner of Guerneville has penned an incendiary and malicious letter to some of his Petaluma sympathizers who are all hard losers on the recent recall and road controversy and urges that they keep up the fight to clean up Sonoma County. It appears that S. Buckner is still bucking and does not realize that the election is all over, that we have a new County Engineer and that the court house has settled down to hard work after being stirred from stem to gudgeon by some of Si's ilk. We do nat know who Si is but we feel like spelling his name Sigh so tire does he make one with his talk of "Cleansing Sonoma County of the rottenest ring since Reuf." The Sapolio brigade raised all the dust possible on the road question some months before the recall election, and when they got into dust up to their necks began to roll their eyes heavenward, moralize and besmirch communities, with the sole purpose of maligning and discrediting the District Attorney's office. Failing of this, and not knowing that they are licked, it appears that some of the dissensonists would still sow the seeds of discord and untruth.

It is too bad that the District Attorney's office cannot resort to some good old fashioned method of cleansing the county of public slanderers in order that Sonoma County may go forward as it should, unassailed and uninterrupted by hypocritical agitators. A public pillory and the application of some good brown soap might stop the mouthings of some of these politica scandal mongers. Why not try it?

SONOMA VALLEY AND FIRE PROTECTION

Sonoma Valley is about to have the unique and proud distinction of having the best fire protection of any community similiarly situated in northern California. With two chemical engines in the heart of the valley at Boyes Springs and the contemplated pump and chemical engine to be purchased by Sonoma, we are going to have a combination of efficiency and service of which we can all well feel proud. That such protection woill bring more and better homes and increased population is a certainty. Hitherto home seekers located with some misgivings or hesitated at the onerous insurance rates which was exacted on unprotected property.

With the purchase of three fire fighting machines and the presence of two departments in Sonoma Valley there will certainly be a reduction in rates. The Board of Fire Underwriters recently wrote the Boyes Springs fire chief regretting that a donation to the new chemical there was impossible but stating that they recognized the value of fire apparatus in a reduction of the insurance rates.

With three up-to-date fire engines, two departments and the contemplated district system of fire alarm which would exactly locate the fire and assure a prompt response, Sonoma Valley has something splendid and practical to offer homeseekers in addition to its many natural charms and advantages as a residence place.

THE FANCHON AND MARCO "SATIRES OF 1920"

The first super-revue in history, Fancho and Marco's irridescent "The Satires of 1920", headed and produced by this famed pair of San Franciscans will be the attraction at the Hill Opera House, Petaluma, Saturday, Oct. 9. It has inherited but one thing from "Let's Go", the stars' tremendous hit of last year. That is the pep. Everything else is new and different from that frothy but compelling bit of stage mastery which played to standing room only for 45 consecutive weeks.

The offering is unique in that it has a real plot, a satirization of the moving picture industry. The struggles of a Texas oil king who seeks to become a great producer to turn out a feature film being shown from the reading of the scenario to the final "fade out." The situations are chock-full of hilarity and in the "shooting" of the different scenes give plausible reason for a series of unexcelled revue numbers.

Big features of the offering include the dancing of piquant Fancho and her gifted brother Marco in up-to-the-second and mazy steps; the comcaities of five noted comedians, Lloyd and Wells, Arthur West, Al Wohlman and John Sheehan; the liquid voice of the prima donna, Miss Eva Clark; the charm of others of the principals, including Muriel Stryker, Lucille Harmon and Daisy De Witte; the real beauty and shaplíness of its extremely youthful girls; the list is too long for a column.

The costuming by Lester of Chicago is original and sensational, the fashion parade which closes the show being the last word in delectable gowning. The music is odd and catchy, being written by Fancho and Marco. The book is the cleverest thing Jean Havez of Ziegfeld's Follies fame has ever written.

ANOTHER SUPERVISOR TO RESIDE IN THIS VALLEY

Sonoma Valley has another Supervisor for a neighbor. Supervisor and Mrs. Cunningham have moved from their place near Windsor to the ranch recently purchased by them near Kenwood. They had resided at their former place for thirty years and are highly regarded in that section.

With two Supervisors to travel over the Sonoma-Santa Rosa road perhaps they can bring some pressure to bear on the State Highway Commission to give us the highway to which we are entitled and for which money has been voted by the people of California.

CLUB NOTES

The regular business meeting of the Sonoma Valley Womans' Club took place at the Clubrooms Friday afternoon, Oct. 1st with a large attendance.

The Club was requested by the Board of Trustees to give a rising vote of thanks to Mrs. R. L. Watt who donated the wood for the coming winter. A rising vote of thanks was also given to all who assisted in making the Garden Party a success.

The California Alumni Association of Berkeley will send a speaker to Sonoma sometime during this month to address the members of the Club and the general public on Amendment 12. The date will be announced later.

Miss Meta Stofen gave a very complete report of the meeting of the County Federation of Womans' Clubs which was held at Petaluma last week and she was highly complimented by all present.

The Cub voted to donate $20 to the Mrs. Alice Frederick Memorial Fund.

CHARGED WITH LARCENY OVER DISAPPEARANCE OF HIS OWN CATTLE

The charge of larceny prefered by R. L. Waller against J. L. Bernard whom he alleges was responsible for the disappearance of several head of cattle from the Waller corral is to be the basis of an interesting suit in court inasmuch as the cattle belonged to the man accused of getting away with them.

It appears that Bernard's cattle strayed to the Waller ranch and it is alleged that they broke in and did some damage, whereupon they were impounded in the Waller corral and held under lien. When Bernard appeared to claim them he refused to pay any charges and went away and left his animals in the Waller enclosure. During the night someone entered the corral and drove the stock away. The next morning it is alleged Bernard was in possession of the animals.

Waller alleges that he has strong circumstantial evidence and swore to a warrant charging Bernard with larceny, towit the theft of his own cattle.

The case was to have been heard in Judge Small's court Thursday but went over to a future date.

SURPRISED BY NEIGHBORS IN HONOR OF BIRTHDAY

The neighbors and friends of genial Chas. Potter of Schellville put one over on him last Tuesday night by giving him a birthday party a day ahead of the anniversary of the arrival of the famous stork responsible for Charley's arrival in this Valley some 46 years ago. Mr. Potter had a hunch that his birthday on Wed. night would be the occasion of a party and had his eye out for signs which might give away the plans if there were any to surprise him, but little dreaming of anything Tuesday night he was preparing for a real good snooze and had just adjusted his night cap and was about to turn in, when he heard a commotion and changed his mind. His good wife in on the secret, rushed in to tell him that visitors had arrived and jovial Charley was soon dressed up and greeting the crowd of well wishers who had come to honor his approaching birthday.

The merry-makers had gathered at the Schellville postoffice and cautiously approached the Potter home laden with presents and refreshments for the popular Schellville resident. They were warmly greeted by Mr. Potter and his estimable wife, and a most enjoyable time including cards, music and refreshments will live long in the memory of all those present.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. Watt, Mr. and Mrs. J. Keiser, Mr. and Mrs. H. Pauli, Mr. and Mrs. F. Helberg, Mr. and Mrs. E. Steiger, Mr and Mrs. F.Rubke, Mr. and Mrs. G. Rubke, Mr and Mrs. H. PROHIBITION MEASURE HELD AS "DEAD LETTER" IN N. Y

Says a special dispatch to the Chronicle under date of October 3rd:

Intoxicating liquor at the present moment flows freely in New York in defiance of the Federal prohibition amendment and the Volstead enforcement act, and it is possible to get a drink anywhere in Man hattan if you have the price, says a competent authority.

Drunkenness is more prevalent than it was at the same time last year, according to police officials. The two city hospitals caring for inebriates not only have had to reopen their alcoholic wards, but are treating more patients than for the same period a year ago.

The city magistrates' courts have arraigned more alcoholic cases recently than for a corresponding period in 1919 and the drunks have been more disorderly.

"Squirrel hootch" has been displaced by "straight goods."

Smuggling on an enormous scale from Canada is said to be responsible for the wide open town.

It is charged by law enforcement advocates that open and flagrant violation of law is tolerated if not encouraged by politicians to get votes.

The Federal enforcement agent for New York says he is doing the best he can, but his job is thankless—and hopeless.

Bogus revenue agents, apparently working in concert and under some central organization, are collecting a huge aggregate of tribute from victims, recent developments have shown.

In fine, prohibition, for the time being, is a dead letter in New York city. This is a verdict based on official figures and the statements of responsibel men in position to observe conditions.

Statistics on the admission of alcohol patients at Bellevue Hospital, as supplied by Menas Gregory, director of the psychopathic and alcoholic department of the hospital, reveal startling conditions. For August and September last the admissions approach the average before war-time prohibition became effective. The normal for the first six months of 1919 was something above 200 a month. For this September of this year 155 alcoholics were admitted into Bellevue. For August the record was higher, 166 having been admitted.

A recent communication to the Bulletin declared that the writer had come upon "wet" spots in San Francisco. The Bulletin editor asks how it was he didn't see the splashes.

GENERAL VALLEJO SUGGESTED FOR HALL OF STATUARY

Men closely indentified with the Spanish days of early California are to the front today in the list of those mentioned for places in the National Hall of Statuary.

Among the names are General Vallejo, last military governor of Northern California; Walter Colton, the first Alcade after California was declared a portion of the United States, and Professor George Davidson, noted scientist.

The most eloquent appeal that has yet been made on the part of any candidate is made by J. H. Cutter, public accountant, who suggests the name of General Vallejo in these words:

"There have been many names of merit placed before your readers, but with few exceptions their connection with the founding and development of our California have not been such as to fit them in all respects for the ultimate selection.

"In my view, there is and can be but one choice of pre-eminent value, and so let us go back across the years to 1769, when Junipero Serra, with lofty aim and courageous, religious zeal, ventured into the then unknown wilderness and founded the first of the famous missions built by him, which became in the north the outposts of civilization within the Golden State that was to be, and which, when restored, will form an enduring and incomparable memorial to his life and work.

"His companion, counselor and friend, who crossed the border with him was young Vallejo, a son of whom was to become famous in the development of the coming State.

"Now, to the selection of one whose life story is inseparably bound up in the history of our beloved California; of pure Castillian blood, descended from a long line of ancestors eminent in the army and navy of Spain, in the church, and as discoverers, commandante at the Presidio of San Francisco, last military governor of Northern California, active in maintaining peaceful relations with the Indian tribes, an ardent admirer of the United States as a great nation, exerting his powerful influence to thwart the sinister, political designs of foreign powers upon the incoming American settlers, the most progressive man of his period, a prince in hospitality, generous to prodigality, illustrious, magnificient occupying a unique, romantic and unparalleled position in public and private life, the best and highest type of the Spanish-California.

"Such was the man whose name I now put forward as my first and only choice—General Mariano Guadaloupe Vallejo, the preserver of the State.

"To my mind, however, far-off Washington is not the place for a fitting tribute to his character and deeds.

"In his later years, passed in quiet dignity at his home—Lachryma Montis—thousands came to pay respect and honor.

"It is that home, once the gem of Sonoma Valley, adorned with flowering plants, lake and fountains, groves of oranges and pomegranates, which I fain would see restored to its pristine beauty—the placed he loved—the spot most fitted to commemorate his name."—San Francisco Bulletin.

INTERESTING VISIT TO HARRISON'S STOCK FARM

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lindley and the W. L. Murphys made an interesting trip to the Santa Rosa Stock Farm last Sunday where they saw some of Thos. Harrison's fine milking Shorthorn cattle and also viewed the many medals recently won by Mr. Harrison at the State Fair.

The famous herd is bringing fame and advertising to Sonoma Co. and since Harrison left the Jack London ranch and established himself at Santa Rosa he has been exclusively in the Milking Shorthorn business. The Shorthorns on the London ranch are bred for beef but the Harrison selection are dual purpose cattle.

Mr. Harrison knew the breed in England, his birthplace, where Milking Shorthorns are highly thought of. When he emigrated to Canada he got in with the late James J. Hill the great Empire builder and railroad magnate and he introduced Milking Shorthorns into this country. Later Harrison became indentified with Jack London's great stock raising plans and for years handled the fine blooded stock of the late author.

While in the Valley of the Moon he was permitted to begin the nucleus of a herd of his own and after London's death, leased the Santa Rosa stock farms where he has a herd of 100 Milking Shorthorns.

The Sonoma visitors saw the famous Count Tickford, one of the classiest bred animals imaginable, junior champion at Portland and valued right now, though still a young animal at many thousand dollars. His owner believes he is second to none in the United States.

Foothills Pioneer, another high bred Harrison animal was sold recently to Leon Douglas, moving picture magnate of Marin County for $3,000.

One of the handsome milk cows on the place is Naomi whose record for milk and butter fat is a marvel and whose calves have been the biggest kind of money getters. From January to May of this year she produced 6,000 lbs. of milk.

In a recent number of the Shorthorn World published at Chicago, Sonoma County was given a fine boost through an article devoted to the milk and beef type cattle as developed at Santa Rosa Stock Farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindley, Master Lindley and Mr. and Mrs. Murphy were most hospitably entertained by Mr. Harrison and family and returned home with much pride in the achievements of this Sonoma County stock raiser and the laurels his herd is winning for California.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Notice is hereby given that I have sold all my interest in the ranch in Lovall Valley to my brother James A. Vigna, and that the partnership heretofore existing between us in dissolved. Notice is given the public that I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by my brother on account of said ranch.

RED CROSS NURSE HAS INTERESTING REPORT

Miss H. Koch, the Red Cross Nurse whose headquarters are in the Bullotti building has made a very interesting report on her work in the community for September.

She has followed up cases of school children who had been advised treatment for various defects by Miss Sacry, her predecessor, and in most cases found conditions very much better and declares that parents are cooperating splendidly with the public nurses's advise.

Miss Koch will soon take up the work of examining school pupils registered this term and her work extends to the following schools: Dunbar, Bliss, El Verano, Enterprise, Eureka, Flowery, Glen Ellen, Huichica, Lake, Lakeville, Los Guilicos, San Luis, Sonoma, Strawberry, Tule Vista, Watmaugh and the Sonoma High School.

On Tuesday next a public luncheon will be given in Santa Rosa by the Public Health Association of Sonoma County at which four prominent speakers will discuss the health measure amendments on the November ballot. All interested in public health work may attend.

Great interest is centering around the November membership drive for the Red Cross and with the home service Sonoma Valley now has had placed at its disposal through the organization it goes without saying that the membership here will make a proud showing.

Miss Koch's report shows that she has made many nursing visits thruout the past month. Her work is educational and instructive and designed to teach the care of the patient in any home where there is sickness.

RAIN WEDNESDAY NIGHT WAS GOOD ONE

Sonoma Valley received a liberal drenching from the rainfall Wednesday night. The parched earth after a long dry season seemed to welcome the shower and the ground soaked up every vestige of moisture.

The grapes which are being harvested and for which fancy prices are being paid were in danger as was also the tomato crop. Many tomatoes however grown this year by Sonoma Valley farmers will not be harested at all as at the present tonnage price offered it does not pay the growers to pick them. From $6 to 11 per ton is the price for tomatoes this year as against $15 to 20 paid the past two seasons. There has been a pronounced slump in the tomato market and no sale for their product say the tomato canneries. With little or no demand, few tomatoes are being handled in proportion to past seasons.

The rain is much needed by orchardists as fruit trees of all kinds will suffer damage if this winter does not prove normal in rainfall.

SONOMA COUNTY SHEEP BARRED

Sacramento, Oct. 5.—A quarantine on sheep shipments from the district of northern Sonoma county and southern Mendocino county lying between the stations of Geyserville, Cloverdale and Hopland, was announced today by Dr. J. B. Iverson, chief of the division of animal industry in the State Department of Agriculture.

The action was taken because of the appearance of sheep scab in that district.

Railroads have been asked to refuse all shipments of sheep from this district until further notice.

BIG INCREASE IN EGG SHIPMENT

It has been estimated on a check up of the amount of eggs produced since the first of January this year to October 1st, covering all those used for hatcheries, for local consumption and shipped elsewhere, are seven hundred and twenty-two thousand, six hundred and twelve cases. Or a total of twenty-one million, six hundred and seventy eight thousand, three hundred and sixty-five dozen eggs.

The above figures mean that there has been a thirty per cent increase ovr last year's figures. Where there were eleven hundred car loads shipped out of Petaluma last year already it is promised with the percentage increase to date that there will be more than fifteen hundred and eighty car loads or at least fifty per cent over last year's shipment to eastern and other points. Up to October 1st there were twelve hundred and ninety car loads.

With six million hens working overtime it looks like Petaluma's total shipments of all products, which includes eggs, chickens and poultry will amount to nearly twenty millions o dollars.

The Poultry Producers of Central California carload shipment to date over last year is fifty-eight per cent. Where they shipped four million, six hundred thousand dozen eggs in 1919, already they promise to ship nearly eight million dozen eggs in 1920.—Petaluma Courier.

With increased costs of issuing a newspaper under present conditions we must have the cooperation of our readers in order to keep the subscription price at $2 per year. The sending of bills and statements to subscribers who do not pay up, cuts down our profits and as the price of the Index is now less than 5 cents per week to regular subscribers it is readily seen that it is poor businesss policy and must only lead to a raise in price. We trust that calling the attention of our subscribers to our position in the matter will be sufficient to bring our list up to a 100 per cent paid-in-advance family of readers. $2 per year; with the San Francisco Bulletin, $7; with the Chronicle or Examiner $10.80 per year.

GEO. REED HAD INTERESTING TRIP THROUGH THE EAST

After a four weeks interesting trip throughout the East, George Reed of the N. W. P. railroad returned home Wednesday night. Reed was accompanied on the trip by his son, Arthur, and it was the latter's first visit to the Atlantic coast. They went to New York and Washington via the Northern route, stopping off at St. Paul where Mr. Reed visited his brother. They also went to the little town in Iowa where Mr. Reed was once a station agent. The Californians found good crops in abundance everywhere. They declare the country stems extremely prosperous. The railroads are fast getting back on a pre-war basis and the big railroad yards are teeming with activity.

Chicago, Detroit, Buffalo, Albany, Philadelphia, New York and Washington were all visited and the Reeds also made a little detour over into Canala. In New York they viewed the scene of the recent bomb explosion in Wall street where they saw Harding for President banners prominently displayed. Mr. Reed declares that the moneyed interests all predict a Republican victory. The visitors stopped off enroute home at many points of interest and took particular interest in the big railroad terminals and yards, as both father and son are railroad men. After traveling over many lines and viewing much equipment, Mr. Reed states that the Northwestern Pacific compares favorably with any they saw for efficiency and service.

THEODORE PIERSON FIGHTS POULTRY ASSOCIATION

Defends Suit Brought Against Him For Non Delivery of Eggs.

The trial of the Poultry Producers of Central California against Theodore Pierson was started in Judge Denny's court Tuesday.

The Poultry Producers of Central California is seeking damages from Pierson for his failure to deliver between 15,000 and 25,000 dozen eggs to them to be sold by the association. They ask damage at five cents a dozen.

According to testimony offered by witnesses for the Poultry Producers Pierson was one of the original subscribers and agreed to market all of his eggs through the association.

The Association contends that Pierson did not do so, and only marketed his eggs through the association when they secured an injunction against him preventing him to market his eggs through the association through the association. They allege that he marketed between 15,000 and 25,000 dozen eggs otherwise than through the association.

The association wants damages of between $1,200 and $1,500 under the terms of the contract they say they entered into with Pierson.

Mr. Pierson alleges that members of the association misrepresented matters to him, and he alleges that accredited members of the association told him that they would market all their eggs direct to the consumers.—Petaluma Courier.

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR UPHELD IN QUINN CASE

Judge Thomas C. Denny sustained the demurrer yesterday in the contest brought against Coroner and Public Administrator Frank H. Phillips in the Margaret Quinn estate. The official had entered a demurrer against the petition revoking his letters of administration.

Ten days were given the contestants in which to amend their petition, after the courts had sustained the demurrer. Coroner Phillips believed that it was for the best interests of the estate for him to take charge hurriedly from the information, which had been conveyed to him, and he transfered the coin of the estate to Sonoma County, and sold the effects of the woman in San Francisco, in order that he might have control over the money and property of the estate.

SILVER WEDDING ANNIVERSARY HONORED

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Joost Given Reception Thursday Night.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Joost, esteemed El Verano residents were given a dinner and reception Thursday night in honor of their silver wedding anniversary. The dinner was given by their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. LaTorres at their home on Napa St. and besides the guests of honor they entertained Mrs. Louise McElroy and John Wagnon. Miss Providence LaTorres was also present.

The dinner party was later augmented by the members of the White Schell Club of which Mrs. Joost is a member. The White Shell folks came unannounced and it was a complete surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Joost, though just the beginning of festivities in their honor, for soon after they were escorted to Odd Fellows hall where a large crowd of friends and neighbors had gathered to congratulate them.

At the hall an impromptu wedding march was staged after the merry company had decked Mrs. Joost in a bridal veil and decorated her husband with a button hole bouquet of orange blossoms. To the strains of Lohengrin, the couple were then presented with several handsome gifts of silver, a basket of exquisite design in hand wrought filagree work, a set of salad forks and other nice presents. Mrs. E. H. Cliff made the presentation and Mr. Joost responded in an appropriate speech. After the real gifts had been bestowed, Chas. Potter produced a rolling pin which he presented to the groom. Mr. Joost was a match for him and replied wittily, the comedy and repartee being greatly enjoyed by all present.

Accompanying the silver basket presented by the White Shell Club was a beautiful letter from the president, Mrs. E. Bennett which was read aloud.

Dancing was then inaugurated and continued until a late hour when the guests and friends were ushered into the dining room where a fine repast was served. The tables were decorated in the white and gold, color of the White Shell Club and a handsome bride's cake made by Mrs. Potter and decorated in frosted roses and silver leaves by Mrs. Chas. Cutter, was set before the honored guests

There was feasting and merrymaking around the festive board and a humorous monologue by E. H. Cliff after which the company adjourned to the hall to resume dancing.

The party broke up long after midnight amid many hearty congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Joost who were married 25 years ago in San Francisco and have seen fulfilled all the good wishes which were bestowed upon them on their wedding day and who continue to enjoy the happiness and contentment of which they are truly worthy.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. LaTorres and the White Shell Club are to be complimented on the nice affair arranged in their honor.

The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Joost, Fritz Bohlig, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cliff, Mrs. Woebke, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hansen, Misses Revie, Mrs. Joe Revie, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Watt, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Potter, Mrs. Alma Koeboom, Mrs. Tom Baines, Mrs. Louise McElroy, Mrs.. Deane, John Wagnon, Carl Bolin, Miss Anna Bolin, Mr. and Mrs. F.
